Thank you for purchasing a Brio console, the most powerful and compact digital broadcast audio console in its class.

To ensure that we are able to support you in a professional and timely manner, please register your new Brio console with us on the Calrec website. Your registration provides us with the most appropriate contact at your location. This allows us to maintain a complete picture of your needs, and enables us to provide a better Support infrastructure should it ever be required.
